

Bulgakov Oleg Yuryevich,

Candidate of Military Sciences, Honored Worker of Communications of the Russian Federation

Graduated in 1978 from Stavropol Higher Military Engineering School of Communications named after the 60th anniversary of the Great October, Faculty of Radio Communications. He graduated from the F. E. Dzerzhinsky Military Academy in 1995 with a gold medal, specializing in Communications Organization and communication nodes. In 2005, he defended his thesis in the field of improving the management of communications troops in Strategic Missile Forces. Colonel of the reserve. He served in the Strategic Missile Forces for 35 years, provided communications for the management of troops and weapons.

Since 2011, he has been an employee of the Federal State Budgetary Institution "All-Russian Scientific Research Institute of Radioelectronics" as Deputy Director of the Center for Standardization and Testing. Author of more than 60 scientific publications and articles, "Textbook of a specialist of the RVSN communications forces. Part 1. Radio communication". Co-executor of research and government assignments in the field of testing, quality and standardization of electronic component base.

He was awarded state awards with the Order "For Military Merit", the medal "For Military Merit" and was awarded the honorary title "Honored Communications Worker of the Russian Federation", awarded departmental medals and badges "Honorary Radio Operator of Russia", "For services to the communications forces".

For more than 9 years he taught special disciplines at the Peter the Great Military Academy and at the Mytishchi branch of the Bauman Moscow State Technical University.

In 2020, he was awarded a certificate of honor from the Ministry of Science and Higher Education of the Russian Federation "For his significant contribution to the development of the field of science and many years of conscientious work."

The organizer of the creation of the magazine and the Editor-in-Chief since its release in February 2021.